MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

Bachelor's Degree and eight years' related experience required.

OTHER QUALIFICATIONS

The successful candidate must possess a bachelor's degree (master's strongly preferred) and a minimum of eight (8) years of relevant experience as a Director of Financial Aid. Experience in a multi-campus higher education and/or urban, commuter college setting is desirable. S/he should have demonstrated strong strategic planning and communication skills, and be an effective highly visible leader with a strong sense of organizational vision and be able to enlist the cooperation of individuals at all levels within the College and the University. Candidates must possess an interest in working with an ethnically and racially diverse student body and be sensitive to their needs. S/he must clearly demonstrate experience in implementing, managing, and maintaining federal and state financial aid systems.

The successful candidate must have demonstrated success managing financial aid operations at a public or private university in a high volume financial aid office with comprehensive knowledge of all federal, state and local financial aid policies, procedures, and regulations. The ideal candidate must show demonstrated in-depth experience with complex financial analysis, monitoring, reporting, and control, as well as and the ability to manage, train and develop staff. The ideal candidate will be familiar with regional accreditation standards, budget management, current data collection, research methodologies, web-based technology and be able to produce results in a fast paced environment. The Director will develop and manage internal and external communication to inform students about financial aid policies and procedures and assist in coordinating financial planning services for students at the pre-enrollment, enrollment and post-enrollment phases. Excellent interpersonal, creative problem solving, organizational, analytical and communication skills required. Peoplesoft experience a plus.
